

“No one gets why
my homework’s
sometimes late.

I wish they knew what it’s really like to be a carer.”

Unpaid carers can feel invisible to even the people closest to them. To make sure they are recognised and supported, we need equality for carers.

Carers UK is a charity registered in England & Wales (246329) & Scotland (SC039307).

“No one understands
when I need to take time
out to care for dad.

But he wouldn't be able to cope
without me being there for him.”

Unpaid carers often provide a life-line for those they care for. To make sure they are recognised and supported, we need equality for carers.

“No one knows just how much a break
would help us both.

I can't give him my best when I struggle to take care of myself.”

Unpaid carers may not know who to turn to for support and information. To make sure they are recognised and supported, we need equality for carers.
